From Trials to Glory

“Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you . . . for the name of Christ ... blessed are you for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you ...” 1 Peter 4:12 - 14

The Gospel of the kingdom is always “Good News” to those who receive it with repentant hearts and faith. It is authoritative with a pathway of freedom, deliverance from judgment, grace, and the open arms of a loving God through faith in the Lord Jesus. Christ suffered for us so we can be forgiven and free.

But it does not mean that we will never suffer.

I have been reading the warning messages of Jesus for the end times, the writings of Peter, and the pleading words of the Book of Jeremiah. They all spoke of long periods of God’s dealing with the ungodly and his chosen ones with mixed judgments and blessings. We learn that there are seasons where all of this happens to everyone. So, we need to take heed how we behave through wide-reaching fiery trials.

Though we are saved, we, the Church, are not exempt from suffering. The difference is only the Church can have the Spirit of Glory rest upon it during the raging tumult of the world. Do we want just relief or the Spirit of glory? Start by rejoicing in the Lord always and not questioning the goodness of a faithful Creator during adversity.

In the midst of the recent pandemic and lockdowns, my wife and I, were infirmed with Covid, and I was hospitalized for two weeks. By the prayer of the saints and faithfulness of God, I not only recovered, but I experienced his awesome presence in the hospital – the Spirit of Glory. This demonically sourced disease, carrying the spirit of anti-Christ, could not steal the joy of the Lord.

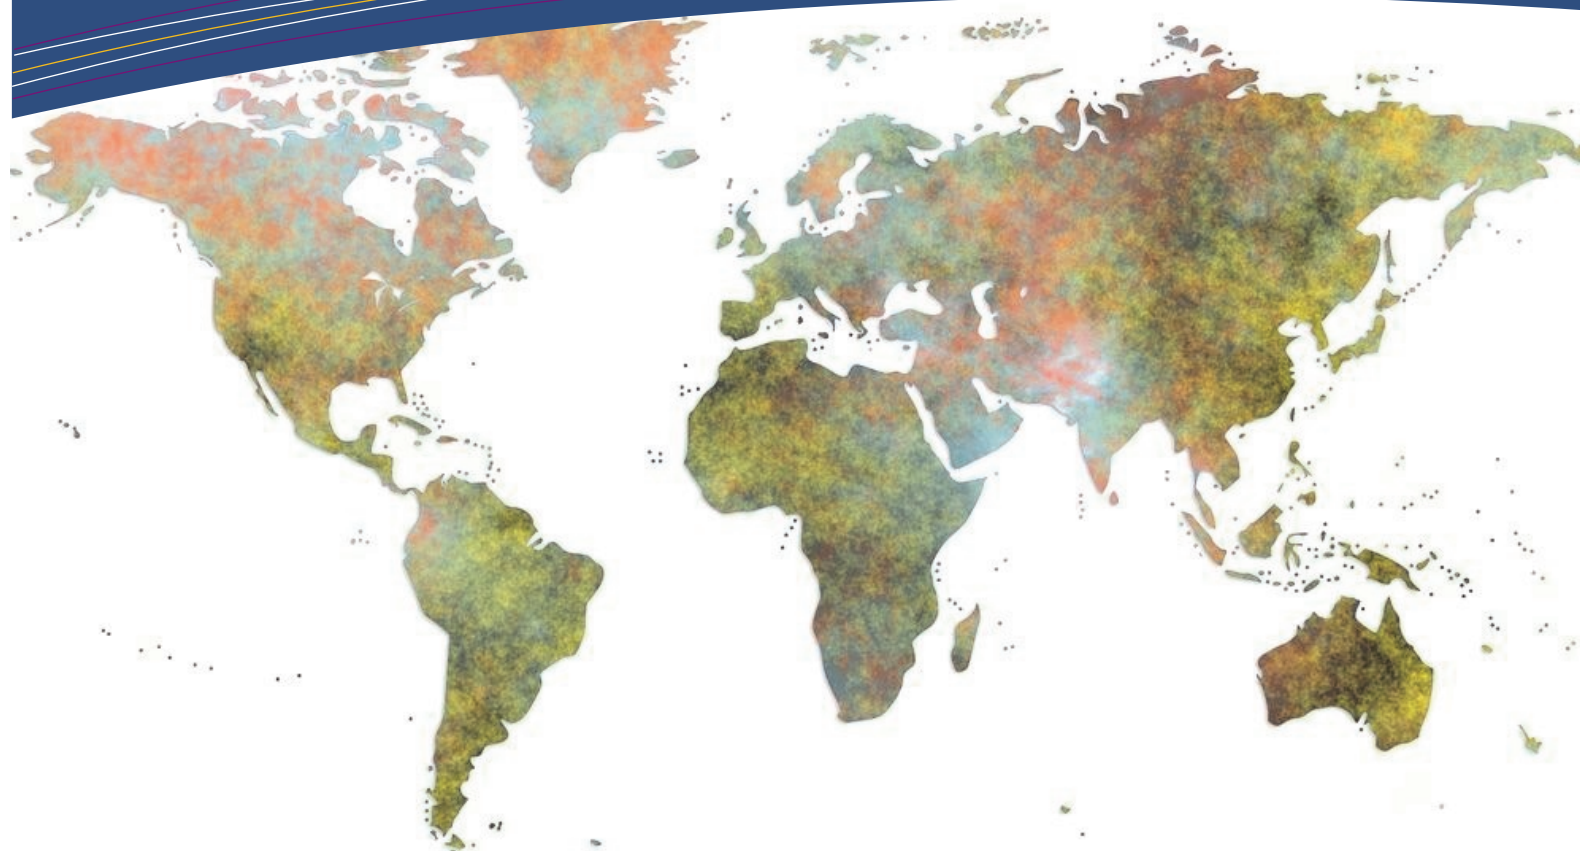

Around the world our missionaries and fellow churches are experiencing different levels of unrest, lockdowns, loss of privileges and like persecutions in a greater proportion than what is happening in the US churches. At the same time, great things are happening in the Lord. Growing during oppression is their norm. We can learn from this. They are poised for revival in good times and bad.

In Jeremiah’s day, so-called prophets spoke of continued good times. So people never prepared for soon-coming persecution. The true prophet Jeremiah prophesied of tough times (the nations collapse) and the need to return to a good God. The people had to choose what to believe and be ready. God spared only a believing remnant. Today, we face the same choice. Overcoming does not depend on voices or circumstances, but knowing God’s heart!

So let’s pray for the Father’s kingdom to come and deliverance from evil, yet prepare for trials and for the Spirit of glory. We don’t always know how God is working the big picture, but we can be strong and prepared. Either way, we can taste the glory.. ➔

Naples, Italy

Buongiorno from Naples, Italy!

I remember sitting in one of my first classes in Bible School and hearing John Cava share about missions. Having never heard about missions before, I thought, 'I'm healthy, single, no kids, no serious responsibilities, I can go.' Well, 23 years after that thought, here I am, married with 4 kids and tons of responsibilities! The honor of serving our Lord isn't reserved for people with open schedules. He just wants a surrendered heart.

It is an honor to serve Him wherever we are in the world, and for us that has been here in Italy since 2004. Plowing, sowing, working.

In 2015, God called us to plant Revival Church Napoli. His specific word to us was to plant a church that would be a light and an example that integrity in ministry exists. Godly families exist. Solid families are still possible, in Him. Hope for the Church, His bride, is not lost. That has been our heart and passion!

Naples is a beautiful yet very broken city. Mafia flourishes, over 50% unemployment, corruption- but God! Where sin abounds so does His grace.

There has been a sense of revival in the air the past few years, and we are regularly seeing people set free from every type of chain. Our focus is apostolic: 2 Timothy 2:2 Outreach, discipleship, and trying to teach others to do the same.

Men's Midnight Prayer on the Mountain

Our new building when we moved in last year (above) and today(below).

We baptized 28-30 this summer on 2 separate days. One couple got baptized together. The husband got saved on the mountain one night and was so radically set free, his wife said she had to come to church and see how he changed. She'd never felt such a deep sense of love before and also got saved.

Women's Ministry Outing

Whether its on the streets or a cell group, marriage counseling or men's prayer meeting on the mountain at midnight we are sowing and watering and pruning and serving and pausing and watching in awe at what God does. Thank you for your prayers as we serve our Lord together. →
